IN MEMORIAM

DAVE YOAKUM, 1946-2023

Dave Yoakum, a member of the Professional Baseball Scouts Hall of Fame who worked with the White Sox from 1991-2022, passed away on May 10, 2023 at the age of 76.

Yoakum worked as a special assistant to several White Sox general managers during his 30 seasons with the White Sox.

At the 2018 Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation Awards Dinner in Beverly Hills, Calif., Yoakum shared the George Genovese Lifetime Achievement Award in Scouting with Washington's Dan Jennings and the late Stan Zielinski of the Cubs. A bronze plaque in his honor is permanently on display at the home of the Class A Fort Myers Miracle in the Florida State League.

A former infielder in the Detroit Tigers system (1966-70), Yoakum worked as a coach, instructor, scouting supervisor or major-league scout for over three decades.

During his minor-league playing career, Yoakum was a teammate of four future major-league managers: Cito Gaston, Gene Lamont, Jim Leyland and Stump Merrill. In his 40-plus seasons as a scout, Yoakum also worked for executives Tal Smith, Pat Gillick, Ron Schueler and Ken Williams.

In January 2003, Yoakum, along with Dennis Gilbert, Roland Hemond and fellow scout Harry Minor (Mets), created the Professional Scouts Foundation. The foundation provides support to scouts who have been in baseball at least 25 years but may have fallen on financial hard times due to illness, retirement or the non-renewal of their contracts.

Yoakum was born in Middlesboro, Ky. on December 15, 1946, and graduated from New Albany (Ind.) High School. He and his wife, Nina, have three children: Mark, Anna and Dax.

BILL "YOGI" YOUNG, 1954-2023

Bill "Yogi" Young, a major-league scout for 32 years, including the last 22 with the White Sox, passed away on November 23, 2023 at the age of 69.

Young's scouting career spanned 32 years, including stops with the Seattle Mariners and New York Yankees before joining the White Sox in 2001.

Among the players he recommended with the Sox were Dámaso Marté, Adam Eaton and Evan Marshall. He also contributed by advance scouting during Sox appearances in the postseason, in addition to his professional scouting responsibilities.

Most recently, his scouting reports on RHP Jairo Iriarte and OF Samuel Zavala were key background as part of the White Sox March 13 trade that sent RHP Dylan Cease to San Diego in exchange for four players.

Young attended Chapman University in Orange, Calif. before signing with the San Francisco Giants in 1976, where he hit .285/.360/.476 (258-905) with 65 doubles, 34 home runs, 169 RBI and 148 runs scored in 255 games over three seasons in the minor leagues.

In his second professional season in 1977, Young batted .291/.348/.540 (127-437) with 35 doubles, 24 homers, 106 RBI and 75 runs scored in 117 games with Class A Fresno in the California League.

Young is survived by his wife and daughter, both named Cheryl. The family organized a celebration of his life on March 9 when many of his scouting peers and others in the game were in Arizona for spring training.

CHICAGO SPORTS ALLIANCE

For more than five years, the White Sox, alongside the Chicago Bears, Blackhawks, Bulls and Cubs, have provided resources and financial support through the Chicago Sports Alliance to seek innovative, evidence-based solutions to gun violence in the city.

Locally, the Alliance has invested $6 million in data-driven programs informed by research and analysis from the University of Chicago Crime Lab. The McCormick Foundation has contributed an additional $2.5 million in matching grants since 2019 – for a total of $8.5 million in funding.

In 2023, the Alliance provided a total of $1.5 million in grants supporting five impactful programs and organizations at the forefront of this charge:

READI 2.0

A gun violence reduction initiative that engages those at the highest risk of being shot or shooting someone else. Individuals participate in 18 months of focused, transitional job training and cognitive behavioral interventions.

ENLACE CHICAGO

In partnership with New Life Centers of Chicagoland and Little Village Youth Safety Network, the community-based program provides wraparound services to address community violence and support youth development.

THE CHICAGO FUND FOR SAFE AND PEACEFUL COMMUNITIES

Housed at the Chicago Community Trust, The Fund provides micro-grants to organizations in communities most affected by violence.

CHAPIN HALL CENTER FOR CHILDREN

An independent non-profit provides research and expertise to build more effective services and systems focused on better serving children and families living in under-resourced communities.

CHICAGO PEACE LEAGUE AT BREAKTHROUGH MINISTRIES

Piloted over the last year with more than 100 young men and spectators, the League runs an evening basketball league in the Garfield Park neighborhood aiming to instill peace through the game.

FUNDRAISING BEYOND THE DIAMOND

White Sox fans' selfless support and financial contributions to Chicago White Sox Charities (CWSC) continues to bolster the non-profit's ability to make Chicago a better place to live, work and play. Here's an overview of the campaigns that generated funds giving back to the community:

- Sox Split 50/50, presented by Wintrust, reached nearly $1 million in sales with half the proceeds going to CWSC.
- Beyond the Diamond, presented by Peoples Gas and Wintrust, returned in April at Navy Pier. The program featured a Family Feud-style game show with players from the 2023 roster, as well as a Q&A with athletes from the CWSC-supported Amateur City Elite (ACE) program and Team Teflon.
- The Field of Greens Celebrity Golf Outing, presented by Modelo, welcomed White Sox coaches, broadcasters and franchise greats to chip in for charity.
- Lunch with the Sox, presented by Dik Healthcare, returned for its third year in September, featuring a spirited conversation with 2005 World Series Champion A.J. Pierzynski.

- The ninth annual CWSC bobblehead fundraising campaign commemorated 2005 World Series champion Mark Buehrle. Combined with other commemorative bobblehead campaigns, the fundraiser brought in more than half a million dollars for CWSC.
- Further fundraising efforts, including programs such as the White Sox Car Raffle, presented by Mazda of Orland Park, the Run Your Sox Off 5K, presented by Planet Fitness, online and in-person garage sales and auctions, and scoreboard messages, helped raise more than $500,000 dollars for CWSC.
- Fans had the opportunity to commemorate, honor or show their White Sox pride by purchasing a personalized brick at Guaranteed Rate Field through the Legacy Brick program. Each paver was installed in the ballpark's Championship Plaza at the start of the 2023 season.

LEADING BEYOND THE DIAMOND

Naturalization Ceremony: For the first time ever, the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois held a naturalization ceremony at the ballpark before a Sox game in late May. Twenty-four candidates from 17 different countries were officially sworn in as U.S. Citizens by Hon. Marvin E. Aspen. Following the ceremony, individuals met with White Sox manager Pedro Grifol, as players and coaches joined the group for the game's National Anthem.

Refugee Hygiene Kits: In response to the increase in migrant families temporarily housed at Police Departments across Chicago, the White Sox purchased and distributed more than 300 hygiene kits for the 9th District Police Station. An assembly effort led by front office staff volunteers, the hygiene kits included essential household goods from shampoo and deodorant to tooth brushes and diapers, among other needs.

Juneteenth: The White Sox helped commemorate the Juneteenth holiday during Sox Serve Week by supporting local Black-owned businesses and programs with random acts of kindness. In addition to raising the Juneteenth flag with Amateur City Elite (ACE) players Amira Hondras and KJ West, the organization collaborated with local artist Edo (@legomyedo) to design a custom T-Shirt, inspired by his conversations with members of the ACE program. Shirts were available for purchase in the Chicago Sports Depot, and proceeds benefited Phalanx Family Services and its work to provide strength-based social services to disadvantaged and at-risk communities.

SERVING BEYOND THE DIAMOND

White Sox Volunteer Corps: A signature program for the White Sox, the Volunteer Corps, presented by Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Illinois (BCBSIL) was created in 2009 in response to a call for Americans to better their communities through service. The program organizes local outreach events that incorporate support from current and former players, coaches, Southpaw, front office staff and members of the volunteer group as they serve shoulder-to-shoulder to make Chicago a better place to live, work and play.

Working In the Schools (WITS): Continuing more than a decade-long partnership, White Sox front office staff volunteers devoted their lunch breaks once a week to read with third grade students at Minnie Miñoso Academy. Promoting literacy and the love of reading by providing one-on-one tutoring, WITS midday mentoring students continue to outpace non-WITS students in reading level growth.

In 2023, Sox Serve Week invited players, team personnel and fans to participate in several unique outreach events, including:

- Ultimate Wish Experience for 14-year-old Brady Nelson who is battling glioblastoma for the second time;
- Random Acts of Kindness with a food truck team from Big Bros Ice Cream helping deliver treats to employees from fellow Black-owned businesses;
- Charities Day, presented by NBC Sports Chicago, inviting fans to purchase limited-edition reversible bucket hats featuring broadcasters Jason Benetti and Steve Stone in support of CWSC;
- Miracle League of Joliet exhibition game for children and young adults with disabilities to compete alongside White Sox players;
- Volunteer Corps Food Repack with White Sox players helping volunteers pack 100,000 meals for the Greater Chicago Food Depository;
- Grant Day, presented by Peoples Gas, recognizing the 47 Chicagoland non-profits receiving CWSC grant support;
- Jersey-Off-Their-Backs Raffle for fans to purchase game-worn jerseys from their favorite White Sox players.

COMPETING BEYOND THE DIAMOND

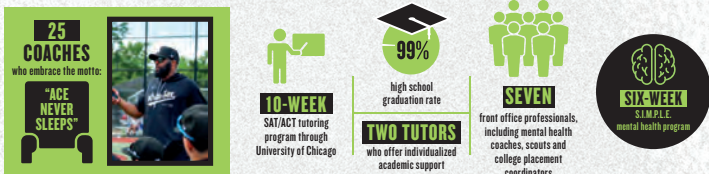

Amateur City Elite (ACE): In 2007, the White Sox created the Amateur City Elite (ACE) program aimed at providing a pathway to the game of baseball for African American youth, while offering resources and mentorship to pull kids away from the dangers of some of Chicago's most violent neighborhoods. ACE offers the tools needed for success on the diamond and in life, and in 2022, the program received Major League Baseball's prestigious Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence.

Heading into its seventeenth season, ACE has provided the financial means and educational resources for more than 150 youth annually. The program holds a 99 percent high school graduation rate and has helped more than 280 students earn scholarships to top schools and several Historically Black Colleges & Universities across the country. In 2023, 16 ACE athletes signed letters of intent to play baseball at the collegiate level, with several players receiving invites to MLB's biggest events for rising players, including the Breakthrough Series, Dream Series, Hank Aaron Invitational and more.

ACE BY THE NUMBERS

ACE'S COMMITMENT TO EDUCATION & MENTORSHIP

ACE Mental Health Program: New in 2023, the White Sox and team psychologist Dr. Jeffrey A. Fishbein offered ACE athletes from all age levels a six-week mental health and performance enhancement program. Each week focused on a different pillar of mindful coaching through "A S.I.M.P.L.E. Baseball and Life" approach, which includes Simulating, Interpreting, Meditating, Preparing, Liberating and Evolving as techniques for athletes seeking mental wellness. In addition to the seminars, ACE athletes received a list of top professionals specifically chosen to provide further treatment and consultation as needed throughout their mental health journeys.

Double Duty Classic (DDC): Named after Negro Leagues standout Ted "Double Duty" Radcliffe, the 2023 Double Duty Classic (DDC) celebrated the rich history and tradition of Negro Leagues baseball in Chicago. Featuring top IU high school players from across the country dressed in retro East-West All-Star uniforms, the DDC honored past Negro Leagues players who competed in the historic All-Star game, which annually drew more than 50,000 fans to Old Comiskey Park. An opportunity to compete in front of college scouts, 47 DDC players have been selected in the MLB Draft since its inception in 2008. Programming also included a workout in front of college scouts, as well as a Negro Leagues Chicago Mahogany Bus Tour with viral TikTok historian Shermann Dilla Thomas.

Team Teflon: The latest all-girls sports program receiving CWSC support, the White Sox welcomed Team Teflon, a Black-owned and operated travel softball organization with teams competing between the 10-16U levels. Fully funding all tournaments for the program comprised of more than 30 predominantly African American and Hispanic student-athletes, the team also received special Sox-branded uniforms and workout apparel. Team Teflon players enjoyed several opportunities at the ballpark, including announcing "playball" for a game, taking the field alongside major leaguers, interviews with the team broadcasters and in-game hosts, among other recognitions.

RBI World Series Champions: Major League Baseball's RBI program provides young people an opportunity to play baseball and softball while encouraging academic achievement and teaching teamwork. For the second consecutive season, the White Sox selected ACE players to represent the organization at the RBI World Series in Vero Beach, Florida, and the team won the Junior Baseball Division Championship. The Sox RBI program has now won its sixth overall championship in Nike RBI World Series history and the fourth in the junior division.

PBATS: The White Sox, with assistance from the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS), welcomed 40 ACE and Team Teflon athletes to the ballpark for a youth sports clinic in August. The Promoting a Lifetime of Activity for Youth (PLAY) event featured two organized kickball games, strength and conditioning training, as well as a Q&A with White Sox players.

Additional Youth Baseball Initiatives: In 2023, the White Sox welcomed more than 5,500 kids from more than 40 different communities to instructional camps across Chicagoland. This included a Nike Home Run Derby with White Sox players, an "Equip the Future" mentoring event with the Players Alliance, the White Sox RBI Jersey program and the Inner City Youth Baseball program (ICYB).

JERRY REINSDORF

CHAIRMAN

Jerry Reinsdorf begins his 44th season as chairman of the Chicago White Sox in 2024, only the seventh individual in Major League Baseball history to surpass the 40-year milestone as a club owner (Connie Mack holds the mark with 50 seasons in leadership of the Philadelphia A's).

During his time as chairman, Reinsdorf's two professional sports teams – the White Sox and the NBA's Chicago Bulls – have delivered seven World Championship titles to the city of Chicago and its fans. Reinsdorf accepted the Commissioner's Trophy from Bud Selig on October 26, 2005, after the White Sox swept their way to the team's first World Series Championship since 1917. The championship was celebrated by a ticker-tape parade attended by nearly 2 million Chicagoans.

The White Sox have reached the postseason seven times during Reinsdorf's tenure, most recently in 2021 when the team captured the American League Central title to reach the postseason in successive seasons for the first time in franchise history. The Sox also captured division titles in 1983, 1993, 2000, 2005 and 2008, as well as claiming a wild card berth in 2020. Every one of the club's Top 20 single-season attendance totals have come since 1981, including a franchise-record 2.95 million fans in 2006.

Reinsdorf's White Sox teams have featured three Most Valuable Player Award winners (Frank Thomas in 1993-94 and José Abreu in 2020), two Cy Young Award winners (LaMarr Hoyt in 1983 and Jack McDowell in 1993), four Rookies of the Year (last Abreu in 2014), five Managers of the Year (last Ozzie Guillen in 2005) and two Executives of the Year (Roland Hemond in 1983 and Rick Hahn in 2020).

Reinsdorf and the White Sox have received five prestigious honors in recognition of the franchise's ongoing commitment to giving back to the community. In December 2022, Reinsdorf and the White Sox received MLB's Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence, recognizing the team's Amateur City Elite (ACE) program, which provides baseball and educational opportunities for underserved Chicago youth. Since its inception in 2007, more than 30 ACE players have been selected in the draft, while more than 280 have signed scholarships to play college baseball. The White Sox are just the third franchise to be honored with the Selig Award twice, also being recognized in 2011 for the club's Volunteer Corps program, an initiative that activates staff, players, resources and over 5,000 fan volunteers for various projects improving the Chicagoland community.

In June 2011, Reinsdorf traveled to Washington D.C. to accept the Jefferson Award, one of the nation's top honors for community service and volunteerism, known as the "Nobel Prize for Public Service," while in August 2011, he received the Barnes and Thornburg Jackie Robinson Award for diversity in the workplace. In September 2012, Reinsdorf and the White Sox were again recognized nationally, receiving the Steve Patterson Award for Excellence in sports philanthropy for the team's Volunteer Corps program. Reinsdorf's life-long support for charitable and community organizations has resulted in numerous other awards and recognitions.

Both of Reinsdorf's sports franchises have donated millions of dollars to causes in the Chicago community through a variety of efforts, including Chicago White Sox Charities and Chicago Bulls Charities. Chicago White Sox Charities has donated more than $47 million to worthy nonprofit organizations in cumulative giving. In 2015, the Chicago Bulls received honors as the inaugural ESPN Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year, and in 2017, the White Sox were finalists for the same award, which celebrates and recognizes how members of the sports industry use sport to serve their communities and make a positive impact. In December 2017, owners for five Chicago sports teams – the Bears, Blackhawks, Bulls, Cubs and White Sox – joined together as the Chicago Sports Alliance to donate $1 million annually to the UChicago Crime Lab and other worthy programs in an ongoing effort to support solutions to the violence that plagues some neighborhoods in Chicago.

Reinsdorf was instrumental in the formation of the Diverse Business Partners (DBP) Program in 1998, and Major League Baseball honored Reinsdorf and the White Sox with the Club Appreciation Award in 2018 to celebrate the program's 20th anniversary. Over the past 20-plus years, Major League Baseball and its clubs have purchased hundreds of millions of dollars in goods and services from minority and women-owned businesses, and the White Sox annually rank among baseball's leaders in the DBP program.

In recognition of his life-long commitment to promoting diversity, Reinsdorf's White Sox hosted Major League Baseball's 2013 Diversity Summit in Chicago, and the franchise also was chosen to host MLB's Civil Rights Game and Beacon Awards Luncheon in August 2014.

Since heading the limited partnership that purchased the White Sox in January 1981, Reinsdorf has been involved in Major League Baseball initiatives at an industry-wide level. He served on the Commissioner's Executive Council and many other committees, including Player Relations, Relocation, Ownership & Legislative, Business and Media Board and Long-Range Labor Planning.

In 2008, his long history of donating time to Major League Baseball led to Reinsdorf being asked to serve on the Board of The Baseball Hall of Fame. Frank Thomas and Tony La Russa were inducted as members of the Hall of Fame's Class of 2014, Tim Lincecum in 2017, Jim Thome in 2018, Harold Baines in 2019 and longtime great Minnie Miñoso was inducted in July 2022. Ken "Hawk" Harrelson was honored with the Ford C. Frick Award for broadcasting excellence in 2020.

Reinsdorf expanded his involvement in professional sports in March 1985 by purchasing controlling interest in the Chicago Bulls. During his tenure as chairman of the Bulls – the third-longest in the NBA – the team has captured six World Championships (1991-93, '96-98). Reinsdorf was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame Class of 2016 in Springfield, Mass., becoming the 10th NBA owner to be honored.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y. on February 25, 1936, Reinsdorf graduated from George Washington University and earned a law degree from Northwestern University after moving to Chicago in 1957. Reinsdorf and his late wife, Marty, have three surviving children, nine grandchildren and one great grandchild.

HOWARD PIZER

SENIOR EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Howard Pizer begins his 44th season with the White Sox in 2024. Pizer, who attends Major League Baseball owners' meetings on the club's behalf, has primary responsibility for the business and administrative operations of the White Sox, as well as oversight of the club's legal matters and governmental relations.

The more than 50-year business associate of Jerry Reinsdorf joined the White Sox in 1981 to handle the club's transition from former owner Bill Veeck to the Reinsdorf-Einhorn group. He served as the club's executive vice president from 1981-2012 before being promoted to the position of senior executive vice president by Reinsdorf in October 2012.

As a member of the MLB President's Committee, Pizer collaborated with executives across the industry to respond to challenges created by the global pandemic for the White Sox and for baseball. During his 40-plus-year tenure with the White Sox, Pizer has supervised the franchise's hosting of two Major League All-Star Games (1983 and 2003), the team's seven postseason appearances (1983, 1993, 2000, 2005, 2008, 2020 and 2021), and the 2005 World Series, the first won by a Chicago baseball team in 88 years. Pizer also has coordinated the team's last three Hall of Fame induction celebrations, for Frank Thomas in 2014, Harold Baines in 2019 and the induction of "Mr. White Sox," Minnie Minoso in 2022.

Pizer served as the lead White Sox contact with MLB for the Field of Dreams game in Dyersville, Iowa, in August 2021. Highlighted by Tim Anderson's dramatic walk-off home run, the nationally televised game against the New York Yankees was the most watched regular-season baseball game in 16 years.

Prior to its opening on April 18, 1991, Pizer's primary focus was on the necessary steps to build new Comiskey Park, now Guaranteed Rate Field. He utilized this experience in connection with the development and operation of the United Center, which opened for the 1994-95 Chicago Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks seasons. He continues to serve in an executive position at the United Center.

Pizer also participated in the development of the Advocate Center, the Bulls training center located next to the United Center, the Fifth Third Arena, the Blackhawks practice facility and community ice center. Pizer is the White Sox chief liaison for the White Sox with the Illinois Sports Facilities Authority (ISFA), the state agency that serves as owner of Guaranteed Rate Field. He is responsible for the overall relationships between the White Sox and their longtime concessionaires, Delaware North, and Levy Restaurants.

Pizer lends his organizational ability to the board of directors of Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities; Special Children's Charities, the fundraising arm of Chicago Special Olympics; Local Initiatives Support Corporation/Chicago Board of Advisors; and Near West Side Community Development Corp. The Chicago native has participated in White Sox Volunteer Corps community service events, as well as the club's support of community efforts to develop the Wentworth Gardens and Bronzeville areas near the ballpark.

Pizer also serves as vice president and secretary for Chicago White Sox Charities, and is a longtime advocate for the franchise's Volunteer Corps initiative and Amateur City Elite (ACE) youth baseball program, both of which have been honored by MLB with the Allan H. "Bud" Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence.

Born on October 23, 1941, in Chicago, Ill., Pizer is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin. He is also a magna cum laude graduate of the Northwestern University School of Law. Pizer and his wife, Sheila, have two children: Jacqueline and Rachel; and four grandchildren.

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER

Chris Getz was named senior vice president/general manager of the White Sox on August 31, 2023, just one day after celebrating his 40th birthday. Getz, who spent seven seasons in the major leagues, joins Boston's Craig Breslow, Seattle's Jerry Dipoto, Philadelphia's Sam Fuld, the Dodgers' Brandon Gomes and Texas' Chris Young as former players currently serving in that role.

Among his first moves, Getz on September 22 announced the hirings of Josh Barfield as assistant general manager, Brian Bannister as senior advisor to pitching and Gene Watson as director of player personnel. Getz rounded out the department on January 11 by naming longtime baseball executive Jin Wong as assistant general manager.

Barfield joined the White Sox after working for nine seasons (2015-23) with Arizona, including the last four as the director of player development. Bannister spent the last four seasons (2020-23) as the director of pitching with San Francisco. Watson brings more than 25 seasons of scouting experience to the organization, including the last two as Kansas City's vice president of major league scouting/assistant general manager. Wong spent 24 seasons (2000-23) with the Royals, including the last two as vice president/assistant general manager.

On November 7, Getz and Manager Pedro Grifol announced the hirings of Matt Wise as assistant pitching coach, Marcus Thames as hitting coach, Jason Bourgeois as first base/outfield coach, Drew Butera as catching coach and Grady Sizemore as a major-league coach.

Since the end of the 2023 season, Getz has added 19 new players to club's 40-man roster. He executed his first trade on November 16, a six-player deal that sent LHP Aaron Bummer to Atlanta in exchange for RHP Michael Soroka, LHP Jared Shuster, INFs Nicky Lopez and Braden Shewmake and minor-league RHP Riley Gowens. Soroka (2015), Shuster (2020) and Shewmake (2019) all were first-round picks of the Braves.

Getz continued the roster overhaul with the acquisitions of SS Paul DeJong (11/28), 2023 Korean Baseball Organization Triple Crown winner RHP Erick Fedde (12/13), LHP Tim Hill (12/28), RHP Chris Flexen (12/31), C Martín Maldonado (1/5), RHPs John Brebbia (1/26), Corey Knebel and Dominic Leone (2/13), INF Mike Moustakas (2/14) and RHP Bryan Shaw (2/14) via free agency, and C Max Stassi (Atlanta on 12/9) and OFs Dominic Fletcher (Arizona on 2/3) and Zach DeLoach (Seattle on 2/3) via trade.

Getz spent seven seasons (2017-23) overseeing the White Sox minor league operations and player development system, including the last three with the added title of Assistant General Manager. Before his promotion in January 2021, he served as Director of Player Development from 2017-20 after being hired in October 2016. He spent the 2015-16 seasons as a Baseball Operations Assistant/Player Development with Royals, who won the 2015 World Series.

Getz handled day-to-day operations of the minor-league system and also supervised operations in 2020-21 of the club's alternate training site in Schaumburg, Ill. Of note in 2018, he implemented a first-of-its-kind Enhanced Education Program for the organization's Latin American players, which to date has produced 34 graduates.

Following the 2023 season, INF Colson Montgomery (No. 17), LHP Noah Schultz (No. 61) and C Edgar Quero (No. 81) all were rated by MLB Pipeline among the Top 100 Prospects in baseball. Montgomery (2021) and Schultz (2022) were first-round picks of the White Sox, while Quero was acquired from the Angels at the trade deadline in 2023.

In 2022, Getz helped implement "Project Birmingham," another innovative program in which most of the organization's top prospects as well as player development staff were assigned to the Class AA Birmingham roster from August 23 through the end of the season.

At the major-league level, Getz assisted on player acquisition and staff hiring decisions at the MLB level, as well as working with Director of Amateur Scouting Mike Shirley on preparation for the annual First-Year Player Draft. He also helped oversee the organization's Sports Science Department, which includes the Arizona Sports Science Lab used for players' motion capture testing and analysis.

During Getz's tenure, the farm system produced OFs Eloy Jiménez and Luis Robert Jr., INFs Andrew Vaughn, Jake Burger, Nick Madrigal and Gavin Sheets, RHPs Dylan Cease, Michael Kopech, Reynaldo López and Codi Heuer, and LHPs Aaron Bummer and Garrett Crochet, all of whom played roles as the White Sox reached the postseason in back-to-back seasons for the first time in franchise history in 2020-21.

Originally drafted by the White Sox in the fourth round in 2005, Getz played seven MLB seasons with the Sox (2008-09), Royals (2010-13) and Toronto (2014), batting .250 (352-1,409) with 176 runs scored and 89 stolen bases in 459 games. His 83.2 percent (89-107) stolen-base success rate ranks 21st in MLB history (min. 100 attempts). Getz was named to Topps All-Star Rookie Roster in 2009.

A native of Grosse Pointe Farms, Mich., and a graduate of the University of Michigan, Getz played collegiately at Wake Forest (2003) and Michigan (2004-05), earning First-Team All-America honors in 2005. On January 25, 2024, he was inducted into the newly established Grosse Pointe South High School Hall of Fame as part of an eight-person class.

Getz and his wife, Nicole, reside in Winnetka, Ill. with their three children: Luke, Alexandra and Avery.

TIM BUZARD

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, ADMINISTRATION

Tim Buzard begins his 43rd season with the White Sox, the longest tenure of any chief financial officer in MLB. The senior vice president of administration is responsible for the ticket office, accounting, human resources, data processing and communications departments.

Buzard has played a major role in the implementation of MLB's revenue-sharing agreement as well as other league-wide financial and insurance initiatives. In 2020-21, he played a key role in the organization's human resource and financial response to the COVID-19 pandemic, including the franchise's ticketing policies related to the pandemic's impact on limited attendance in 2021 and the shortening of the 2020 season to 60 games played without any fans in attendance.

He has overseen a ticket office customer service campaign for the White Sox, the development of a human resources department and is responsible for the organization's integrated approach to communications. Buzard is a member of the MLB Non-Uniformed Personnel Pension Plan Committee and the Subscribers' Advisory Committee of the MLB Assurance Exchange Society, MLB's captive insurance company.

After joining the franchise in 1981, Buzard served as controller for five years, vice president of finance for 12 and vice president of administration and finance for six. He oversaw the automation of the accounting department and has supervised multiple organization-wide IT upgrade initiatives. Buzard also has initiated new cash management and comprehensive risk management systems, which reduced risk exposures and costs for the franchise.

Promoted to senior vice president in 2004, Buzard was instrumental in the operation of the Chicago Bulls/White Sox Training Academy in Lisle, Ill., from 2001-2020. The facility, which offered professional baseball, softball and basketball instruction for kids of all ages up to professional athletes, saw over one half million visitors during its nearly two decades.

Buzard graduated in 1978 from the University of Illinois with a degree in accounting and became a certified public accountant in 1981. He served as a senior accountant for Ernst & Whinney for three years prior to joining the Sox. Buzard was born on September 13, 1955, in Evanston, Ill. He and his wife, Sandra, have two children: Jacqueline and Kevin. The family resides in Riverwoods, Ill. The Buzards donate their time as members of the White Sox Volunteer Corps and SHORE Community Services supporting individuals with developmental disabilities.

TERRY SAVARISE

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, STADIUM OPERATIONS

Entering his 44th season with the Chicago White Sox, as Senior Vice President of Ballpark Operations, Terry Savarise is directly responsible for all aspects of the operation of Guaranteed Rate Field, including more than 2,000 employees who staff the ballpark on game days.

Savarise, who was promoted to senior vice president in 2004, was responsible for the planning and construction of the new ballpark, which opened in 1991. He has overseen the ballpark's many popular renovations and remodeling efforts, including the installation of three new video boards in 2016, construction of the Goose Island seating area in right field in 2019 and new LED field lighting as part of a green initiative in 2020.

Most of the renovations to Guaranteed Rate Field have focused on improving the game experience for fans by creating a more intimate and fun atmosphere. Among the changes, the Sox added the popular Fan Deck in center field, changed the color scheme of the ballpark and in its most dramatic change, removed the top eight rows of the upper deck and added a flat roof over the back rows of the upper deck. In 2023, enhancements included two new View Bars for fans located on the ballpark's 500-level and an expansion of the home clubhouse that includes high-tech batting cages and a re-imagined space for player kids and families.

Savarise serves as executive vice president – COO of the United Center, home of the six-time World Champion Chicago Bulls and the six-time Stanley Cup Champion Chicago Blackhawks. The arena hosts over 220 major events each year, making it one of the busiest venues in the United States. After being the host site for the 1996 Democratic National Convention, the United Center is slated to again play host to this summer's DNC event. Savarise has worked extensively with Governor J.B. Pritzker, Mayor Brandon Johnson and their staffs in preparation for the event. Savarise was responsible for all design and construction of the 960,000-square foot, multi-purpose arena and its surrounding campus – including the Chicago Bulls Advocate Center, Fifth Third Community Ice Arena and the United Center Atrium. In addition to the 2020 NBA All-Star Game, other recent events include the 2017 NHL Draft, 2017 NCAA Frozen Four, 2018 Laver Cup and the 2019 Starbucks Leadership Conference.

In response to challenges faced during the COVID-19 pandemic, Savarise oversaw the implementation of health and safety protocols for MLB, the NBA and NHL. Beyond his work to maintain the health of athletes, staff and fans, Savarise played a key role in crisis relief efforts within the city of Chicago by leveraging the UC campus as the logistical hub during the pandemic. He led efforts to make the UC a critical resource, including: a satellite storage facility for the Greater Chicago Food Depository holding 774,840 pounds of non-perishable items for dispersal; one of the first PPE drives in collaboration with Project C.U.R.E., collecting 13 pallets of supplies for distribution among healthcare providers; a PPE donation drop-off site for Team Rubicon, a veteran-led global disaster response organization; Chicago's first mass vaccination site, administering 300,000 vaccines from March-June 2021.

In addition, Savarise oversaw operations for the arena to serve as a safe and accessible in-person voting supersite on Election Day 2020. The UC was noted as the city's busiest polling site, casting more than twice as many ballots than any other location.

Savarise spearheaded the design and construction of Camelback Ranch – Glendale, the award-winning White Sox and Los Angeles Dodgers spring training facility in Glendale, Ariz., which opened in 2009. Savarise sits on the board of the joint venture which runs Camelback Ranch – Glendale.

Savarise is a member of the Arena Managers' Association and the International Association of Auditorium Managers and has served on the board of directors of the Stadium Managers' Association. He is a graduate of the Ohio University Sports Administration program. Savarise and his wife, Tara, have two children: Katie and Jon.

RHP and Michael Kopec, INFs Colson Montgomery and Andrew Vaughn and OF Andrew Benintendi are among the Perfect Game alumni playing in the White Sox organization.

At the 2022 Winter Meetings in San Diego, Gilbert was honored by the Baseball Assistance Team (B.A.T.) with the Big B.A.T./Frank Slocum Award for exemplary service and dedication to the organization.

Gilbert, who received the Jack Brickhouse Lifetime Achievement Award at the Pitch & Hit Club of Chicago Awards Banquet in January 2015, assists the White Sox in contract negotiations and consults on other baseball-related issues.

Always active within the baseball community, Gilbert, along with Roland Hemond and scouts Dave Yoakum (White Sox) and Harry Minor (Mets), created the Professional Scouts Foundation in January 2003. The foundation, which held annual fundraising dinners featuring guests such as Willie Mays, Sandy Koufax,

Tom Seaver, Tommy Lasorda and other baseball notables, offered support to scouts who have provided longtime service to the game but may have fallen on financial hard times due to illness, retirement or the non-renewal of their contracts.

Prior to joining the White Sox, Gilbert was involved in building a top-flight baseball stadium at Southwest College in south central Los Angeles that serves as the home field for Major League Baseball's RBI program (Reviving Baseball in the Inner Cities). The ballpark, Dennis Gilbert Field, celebrated its Opening Day on January 20, 2002. He continues his successful insurance practice in Beverly Hills, Calif.

After building his insurance business, Gilbert began his career as an agent in 1980 when he represented Hall of Famer George Brett. Gilbert added clients Bret Saberhagen, Danny Tartabull and Jose Canseco and then formed the successful Beverly Hills Sports Council, where his client list included Barry Bonds, Bobby Bonilla, Mike Piazza and Curt Schilling. Gilbert negotiated a contract buyout for Bonilla in 2000 that pays the former outfielder $1.193 million every July 1 from 2011-2035.

Gilbert played minor league baseball for four years and also has scouted in the Los Angeles area. He is a longtime season-ticket holder for the Los Angeles Dodgers and Los Angeles Angels. Gilbert and his wife, Cynthia Vereen, reside in Homby Hills, Calif. The couple has three children: Ashlee, Shannon and Hailey.

ROGER BOSSARD

HEAD GROUNDSKEEPER

The man responsible for building and maintaining Guaranteed Rate Field's highly regarded playing field is head groundskeeper Roger Bossard, now in his 58th season with the White Sox.

Groundskeeping is a Bossard family tradition, with six members combining for more than 250 years of experience in the business. Roger's grandfather, Emil, served as head groundskeeper with the Cleveland Indians from 1932-68, his uncle, Marshall, was inducted into the MLB Groundskeepers Hall of Fame in 2019, and his father, Gene, was in charge with the White Sox from 1940-83. Roger joined the Sox in 1967 as an assistant to his father before taking over in 1983.

Bossard designed and built the playing fields for Camelback Ranch-Glendale, the White Sox spring training complex that opened in 2009. He also designed and built new playing fields at Wrigley Field (2007 offseason) after performing the same task at the new Busch Stadium in St. Louis (2005), Boston's Fenway Park and Washington's RFK Stadium (2004).

In addition to Guaranteed Rate Field, Bossard has designed and built fields in Arizona, Boston, Detroit, Milwaukee, St. Louis, Seattle and Washington, as well as spring training complexes for Cincinnati, Montreal, the Yankees, St. Louis, Arizona, the White Sox and Dodgers.

In 1984-85, Bossard designed and built the first natural turf soccer fields in Saudi Arabia for the Royal Family, where he continues to serve as a consultant. Nineteen of 30 major-league teams use a patented drainage system that he developed specifically for the opening of Guaranteed Rate Field in 1991. As part of the ballpark's 2000 offseason renovation, he built new bullpens and reconfigured the outfield grass, irrigation and drainage systems.

Bossard and his wife, Geri Lynn, have two children: Brittany and Brandon, who played in the White Sox minor-league system from 2021-22. The family resides in Lemont, Ill.

2023 REVIEW

Dylan Cease struck out 214 batters in 2023, his third consecutive season with 200 or more. Cease joined LHP Chris Sale (2013-16) and Hall-of-Famer Ed Walsh (1910-12) as the only pitchers in White Sox history to record 200-plus strikeouts in three straight seasons.

The 2024 season marks 15 years since Mark Buehrle threw the second perfect game in franchise history on July 23, 2009 vs. Tampa Bay at Guaranteed Rate Field. Buehrle's effort was his second career no-hitter and the 18th perfect game in major-league history.

WHITE SOX TIMELINE

- Nov. 20, 1893 At a meeting at the Grand Hotel Indianapolis, the Western League is formally organized. Charles Comiskey nominates Ban Johnson for league president. The Sioux City franchise is awarded to local businessman H. H. Drake. A year later, Comiskey's contract with the Cincinnati Redlegs expires. At the behest of Ban Johnson, Comiskey purchases the Sioux City team and moves it to St. Paul.
- Oct. 11, 1899 The American League is formed in Chicago, amid rumors that the St. Paul club will transfer to the South Side.

1900-09

- March 21, 1900 An agreement is signed which lands the St. Paul Saints in Chicago.
- April 2, 1900 Playing as the Chicago team for the first time, the White Stockings defeat the University of Illinois, 10-9, in Champaign. Roy Patterson is the victor.
- April 21, 1900 The Chicago White Sox play their first game in a small wooden ballpark located at 39th and Princeton. The Sox lose to Milwaukee, 5-4.
- April 22, 1900 The Sox defeat the Brewers, 5-3, behind Roger Denzer for their first victory.
- June 9, 1903 The White Sox are incorporated under Illinois law with $5,000 capital.
- Oct. 14, 1906 The Sox claim the only all-Chicago World Series, defeating the Cubs, 8-3, in the Game 6 finale.
- Jan. 19, 1909 Charles Comiskey purchases a tract of land near the corner of 35th and Shields from Roxanna Bowen, a descendant of former Chicago Mayor John Wentworth. Later in the year, Zachary Taylor Davis is commissioned by the Sox to design a ballpark on the site.
- Oct. 6, 1909 Davis submits his proposed ballpark design to Comiskey for approval.

1910-19

- March 17, 1910 The cornerstone of Comiskey Park is laid on St. Patrick's Day.
- July 1, 1910 Comiskey Park opens to a packed house but the Sox lose to St. Louis, 2-0.
- Oct. 15, 1917 Chicago wins its second World Series title by defeating the New York Giants, 4-2.

1920-29

- Sept. 29, 1920 Eight White Sox players are suspended by Charles Comiskey for their part in the 1919 World Series fix.
- Aug. 2, 1921 After two hours of deliberation, the jury in the "Black Sox" trial returns a not-guilty verdict, but later the players are banned for life by Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis.
- April 20, 1927 The expanded Comiskey Park reopens, but the Sox lose to Cleveland, 5-4. The new outfield upper deck accommodates 23,200 additional fans.

1930-39

Orlando "El Duque" Hernández threw 3.0 scoreless IP in relief in Game 3 of the ALDS at Fenway Park. With Chicago holding a 4-3 lead in the seventh inning, Hernández inherited a bases-loaded, no-out situation but worked out of the jam by retiring Jason Varitek and Tony Graffanino on popups before striking out Johnny Damon on a 3-2 count to end the threat. The White Sox went on to post a 6-3 victory and complete the three-game sweep of the defending World Champion Red Sox.

GAME 1: ANGELS 3, WHITE SOX 2

Notes: Despite playing in three time zones in three straight nights, the Angels received a solid outing by Paul Byrd and a solo home run by Garret Anderson to take a 1-0 advantage in the ALCS ... Byrd, pitching on three days rest, allowed two runs on six hits in 6.0 IP ... José Contreras (3 ER/7.0 IP) saw his nine-game winning streak come to an end ... Joe Crede hit his first home run of the playoffs, a solo shot in the third inning ... Neal Cotts retired both batters faced, the only appearance by a Sox reliever in the series ... the White Sox fell to 0-6 in the ALCS at home.

GAME 4: WHITE SOX 8, ANGELS 2

Notes: Freddy García nearly duplicated Mark Buehrle's five-hitter and Jon Garland's four-hitter, making the White Sox the first team to pitch three straight complete games in the postseason since the 1973 New York Mets (Tom Seaver, Jon Matlack and Jerry Koosman) ... García, who was pitching for the first time since clinching the ALDS, gave up two early runs while striking out five ... A.J. Pierzynski homered for the White Sox, his third of the postseason, and Joe Crede added a two-run single in the eighth off Esteban Yan ... Paul Konerko homered in the first inning for the second straight game ... Chicago scored seven runs in the first innings of the series.

The White Sox eliminated the Los Angeles Angels in five games to advance to their first World Series since 1959. Mark Buehrle, Jon Garland, Freddy García and José Contreras threw four consecutive complete-game victories to end the series, the first team to accomplish that feat since the 1928 New York Yankees.

2005 WORLD SERIES

GAME 1: WHITE SOX 5, ASTROS 3

Notes: In the first World Series game held in Chicago since 1959, the White Sox posted a 5-3 victory vs. Houston ... Jermaine Dye hit an opposite-field home run off Roger Clemens in the first inning ... the Sox added a pair of runs in the second on A.J. Pierzynski's RBI groundout and Juan Uribe's RBI double ... Lance Berkman evened the game with a two-run double in the third, but Joe Crede put the Sox ahead for good with a solo home run off Wandy Rodriguez in the fourth ... Houston put runners on first and third with no outs in the eighth, but Neal Cotts (two strikeouts) and Bobby Jenks (one strikeout) combined to end the Astros threat ... Clemens left after 2.0 IP with a sore left hamstring ... José Contreras, the sixth Cuban pitcher to ever start a World Series game, earned the victory despite tying a Fall Classic record by hitting three batters.

GAME 2: WHITE SOX 6, ASTROS 6

Notes: Paul Konerko hit the 18th grand slam in World Series history, and Scott Podsednik hit a game-ending home run as the White Sox won Game 2, 7-6 ... with the Sox trailing, 4-2, in the seventh inning, Konerko homered on Chad Qualls' first pitch to put the Sox in front, 6-4 ... Houston tied the game in the ninth when pinch-hitter José Vizcaino laced an opposite-field, two-run single off Bobby Jenks with two outs to set up Podsednik's heroics ... Podsednik, who went homerless in the regular season, hit a 2-1 pitch from Brad Lidge over the right-center field fence for the 14th game-ending homer in World Series history ... the game was delayed seven minutes by rain, the first in a World Series since Game 3 in 1993 at Philadelphia (1:12) ... each Sox player collected at least one hit.

2005 WORLD SERIES

GAME 3: WHITE SOX 7, ASTROS 5 (14)

Notes: For the second straight game, an unlikely hero came to the forefront for the White Sox as Geoff Blum hit a solo home run in the 14th inning to break a 5-5 tie ... Blum, who had one prior postseason at-bat, entered the longest game in World Series history in the 13th and lined a 2-0 pitch over the right-field wall to give the Sox the lead ... Chicago added an insurance run on Chris Widger's bases-loaded walk ... Houston put runners on the corners in the 14th, but Game 2 starter Mark Buehrle came on to retire Adam Everett on a popout to shortstop Juan Uribe to end the game ... the Astros left the winning run at third base in the ninth and at second in the 10th and 11th ... Jon Garland allowed four runs in the first 4.0 IP but retired 12 of his last 13 batters faced ... Chicago overcame a 4-0 deficit by scoring five runs in the fifth off Roy Oswalt, highlighted by Joe Crede's solo homer and A.J. Pierzynski's two-run double that put the Sox ahead, 5-4 ... Jason Lane's double off Dustin Hermanson in the eighth tied the game at 5-5 ... the 43 players used by both teams was a World Series record, and it marked the first Series game played in Texas.

GAME 4: WHITE SOX 1, ASTROS 0

Notes: The White Sox captured their first World Series title since 1917 with a 1-0 victory over the Astros at Minute Maid Park ... Jermaine Dye, the eventual Most Valuable Player of the series, drove in the only run with an eighth-inning single off Brad Lidge that scored Willie Harris ... Harris led off the eighth with a single, moved to second on a sacrifice bunt by Scott Podsednik and to third on Carl Everett's ground out ... Bobby Jenks pitched a scoreless ninth inning for the save with help from Juan Uribe, who dove into the stands down the left-field line to record the second out of the final frame before retiring Orlando Palmeiro on a grounder to end the game ... starters Brandon Backe and Freddy García each tossed 7.0 scoreless IP ... the Astros were 0-11 with runners in scoring position and were held without a run in the final 15 innings of the World Series ... Chicago went 11-1 in the postseason, tied for the second-best playoff record since 1969 (minimum seven games).

Tucson, Ariz.	1998-2008
Glendale, Ariz.	2009-current

CAMELBACK FACTS AND INFORMATION

A baseball oasis, Sonoran desert-inspired Camelback Ranch-Glendale (CR-G), now in its second decade as the spring home of the White Sox and Los Angeles Dodgers, is a successful public-private partnership between the two teams and the City of Glendale (Arizona). It features a 141-acre campus, largest in the Cactus League, and a state-of-the-art stadium that seats 13,500 fans (10,500 permanent seats, 3,000 grass). A five-acre water feature (connected lake, river and pond) divides the campus into east (Dodgers) and west (White Sox). The two teams honor their histories with photo opportunities along the water feature recognizing their all-star players.

Attendance

- The Ranch welcomed 244,820 fans in 2019, the third-largest total attendance in facility history. The complex's 8,442 per-game average in 2019 ranked second in its history, falling just 27 fans per game shy of its all-time record (2016). CR-G also recorded seven sellouts in 2018 (one shy of its record of eight).
- The Ranch has hosted more than 200,000 fans 10 times.
- Largest crowd: 13,721 - 3/23/13, White Sox vs. Dodgers
- Largest season attendance: 257,609 (2017)
- Most sold-out games: 8 (2016)

Ballpark Firsts

- Game: White Sox vs. Dodgers, 3/1/09.
- Pitch: Hiroki Kuroda, Dodgers, 3/1/09.
- Hit: Jayson Nix, White Sox, double, second inning, 3/1/09.
- Home Run: Gordon Beckham, White Sox, ninth inn., 3/1/09.

The Ballpark at Camelback Ranch

- The stadium offers more than 10,300 fixed seats and grass seating for over 3,000 fans.
- Natural materials (real stone veneer, architectural metal "rusty" panels, three-tone faux painting) were used for external finishes to blend the desert surroundings. Caramel-colored seats and stone retaining walls further the natural look.
- Prior to the 2020 season, extended the protective netting down the left and right-field lines to ensure the safety of and improve the game-watching experience for fans
- CR-G in 2018 debuted a 30' x 50' Daktronics outfield videoboard. The HD videoboard provides fans with a dramatic upgrade to the visual and interactive experience during games.
- Another significant enhancement in 2018 was the addition of two new 100-foot shade structures along the first base concourse. The structures, designed by HKS, complement existing design features while providing more shaded seating.

Ballpark Boulevard

- Prior to the start of 2020 spring training, the city of Glendale, Camelback Ranch, the White Sox and Dodgers announced the opening of Ballpark Boulevard (111th Avenue).
- The new 1.8 mile stretch of road connects CR-G with the Loop 101, Westgate and Glendale's sports/entertainment district. The road opening greatly enhances gameday ingress and egress.

Campus

- The distinctive complex covers 141 acres, making CR-G the largest campus in the Cactus League.
- The five-acre water feature (connected lake, river and pond) divides the campus into east (LAD) and west (CWS) and provides field irrigation, landscaping and aesthetic enhancement.
- Landscaping includes approximately 5,000 plants and trees.

Connectivity

- Fans are able to enjoy free public Wi-Fi throughout the stadium by connecting to the CRG_Public network, opening a browser, and following instructions for Wi-Fi powered by Cox.
- White Sox fans from all over the country can share photos and experiences using #SoxSpringTraining, and are encouraged to follow @camelbackranch on Instagram and Twitter for behind-the-scenes access and informational updates.

Photo Spots

- The White Sox have joined the Dodgers in honoring their all-star players along the five-acre river and lake system separating the teams' practice fields. The displays list every all-star player in history position by position for fans to enjoy as they walk to and from the stadium and practice fields.
- Each side of the complex also has a six-foot-tall team logo, perfect for selfies. Inside the stadium, snap a pic with larger-than-life bobbleheads of Frank Thomas and Tommy Lasorda.

Team Buildings

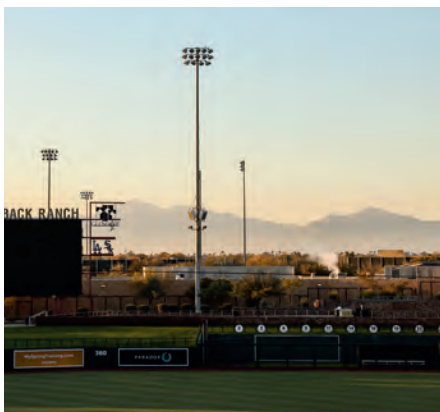

- The Dodgers and White Sox buildings contain more than 118,000 square feet of major/minor league clubhouse space.
- Two of the 12 practice fields (four MLB, eight MiLB) replicate the Dodger and White Sox home ballparks with exact dimensions of Dodger Stadium and Guaranteed Rate Field.
- On the White Sox side, the club in 2020 completed the construction of a new group meeting space and indoor batting cages on the minor-league side of the complex.

New Clubhouse Store

- The stadium added an improved and larger satellite Clubhouse Store location down the left field line of the ballpark prior to the 2022 season. The modern container structure features New Era product, Spring Training-exclusive and White Sox merchandise.

- CR-G continues as a cashless venue, no exceptions.
- The gates to the main stadium now open 60 minutes prior to the contests's scheduled first pitch (previously 90 minutes).
